

What are you in the mood for?

This year's Portland Happy Hour Guidebook is organized in categories by "mood" (e.g. Brewpubs, Cocktail Lounges, International Cuisine, etc.), to best assist in selecting that perfect Happy Hour.

Hit the best restaurant Happy Hours!

Enjoy dining out at nice places – for less money! In total, more than 350 restaurants are reviewed, with over 90 new entries added in this 4th edition – and great money-saving coupons too (2-for-1 entrees and "Happy Hour All-Night" tickets).

Ratings come from one constant, knowledgeable source and are all based on an objective formula.

What many happy customers have said:

- "This book helps us pick places for our dates."
- "For our after-five work crowd, this is a bible!"
- "The book pays for itself using just one coupon."
- "What a perfect gift!" and "I love it!!!!"

GUIDEBOOK

2010

Mood Edition

Factoids & Tipsys

- Lots of places go all night ('til close) on Sunday or on another weeknight. Look for the ★s in this book to most easily find extended hours.
- Happy Hour ENDING times are listed on the website via the MAPS tab. View these maps on your iPhone! Refer to the restaurant's rating page in book for full information, ratings & exact hours.
- Be aware of the Happy Hour end-time and pad your order by at least 10 minutes. Ask your waiter.
- Incorporate another activity such as a movie, a concert, or a long walk into your night out.
- Not all places can accommodate larger groups. Call first. It's fun to organize a get-together!
- Sign up for the email list at your favorite restaurants. You'll be in the know about special events and offers. And maybe get a coupon here and there too.
- Live in gratitude—most cities do not have Happy Hours. I know—shocking! And we have the best.
- Things change! Please report changes you find to: pdxinfo@happyhourguidebook.com. Also, sign up for the monthly newsletter to be in-the-know.
- Check in with the website to keep up with changes!
